

Planning Your Gift

Here are some suggestions as you discern what you will dedicate to WCUC and beyond:

Give to improve your spiritual health: Jesus and sociologists agree: giving is good for us. Sharing changes our relationship to wealth and one another! The Bible invites us to consider giving a percentage of our overall wealth; see the graph below.

Give to express your values: Our budgets express our deepest beliefs. What do you desire to support? How important are these priorities to you?

Give to meet the needs of our community: Our community survives and thrives because of your generosity. We wouldn't be here without you! Learn more about our budget and our income on the back of this page. Consider a monthly gift to help stabilize our income.

Give to become part of our team: Among us are those whose financial gifts to the church fundamentally change their household budgets. Some contribute 10% of their income or more to make our ministry possible. How can you partner with these leaders in giving?
